

Sustainable Birding

Bristol, VT

Birding is a great way to relax, explore, and get involved!

Your Bird Sightings Can Help Science!

1. Download the eBird app
2. Record your bird sightings

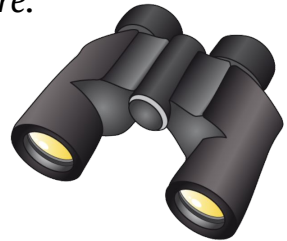

What is eBird?

eBird turns birdwatching into a powerful tool for science and conservation. Scientists use eBird data to study birds, protect habitats, and guide conservation efforts around the world.

Leave No Trace

Follow good practices to help protect nature.

1. Use designated trails
